

FREE Holocaust Education Unit for Grades 7-12

Brought to you by the Holocaust Resource Center of Buffalo

Blue Tattoo: Dina's Story, Joe's Song

The documentary film "Blue Tattoo: Dina's Story, Joe's Song" is based on the life of Holocaust survivor Dina Jacobson of Elmira, NY and the song "Blue Tattoo," written about her by acclaimed folksinger, Joe Crookston from nearby Ithaca. The film has been enthusiastically greeted with high accolades at Jewish Film Festivals and numerous Holocaust related events around the country.

By conveying the experience of one survivor through the art of film and music, the documentary succeeds in reaching students with its lessons of history on a highly personal level.

Concise, Fully Integrated Classroom Presentation, Includes

- User friendly PowerPoint format
- Half hour version of the film integrated into the presentation
- Background information, discussion topics and assignments
- Study guide with additional suggested projects

Please go to the Education Page at BlueTattooFilm.com to download both the Powerpoint Presentation and accompanying Study Guide.

You may also view a trailer of the film on the website and refer to the Contact page if you have any questions or would like to provide feedback.

Someday there will be no more Holocaust survivors left to tell their stories. The film "Blue Tattoo: Dina's Story, Joe's Song" will help serve the purpose of ensuring that these stories continue to be told and that atrocities such as the Holocaust never occur again.